

BUY BRITISH ballito STOCKINGS

Daily Express

TO-DAY'S WEATHER: FINE; COOLER.

NO. 10,258.

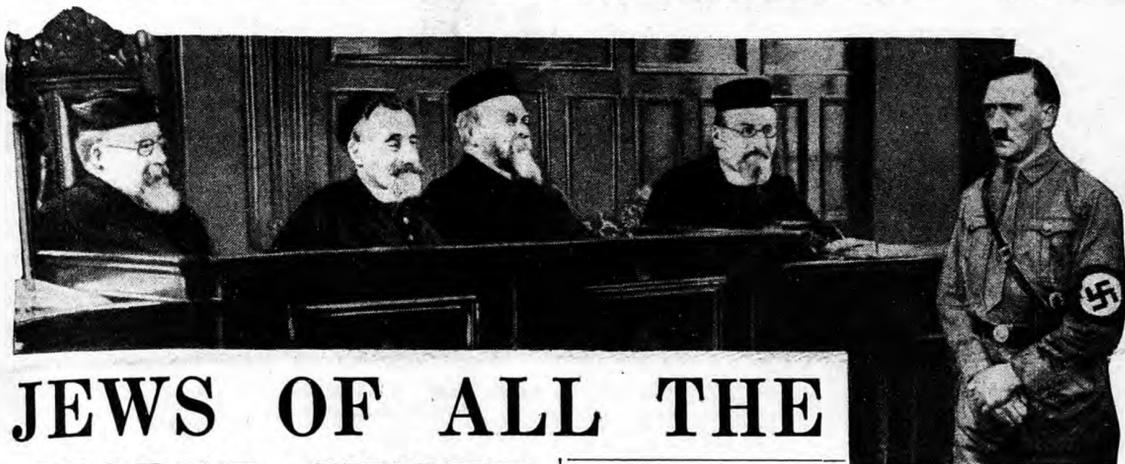

FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 1933.

St. Ivel CHEESE
Aids digestion
2d., 6d. & 8½d. each.
Aplin & Barrett & the Western Counties Creameries Ltd., Yeovil, Somerset.

ONE PENNY.

JUDEA DECLARES WAR ON GERMANY.

JEWES OF ALL THE WORLD UNITE BOYCOTT OF GERMAN GOODS MASS DEMONSTRATIONS

"Daily Express" Special Political Correspondent.

A STRANGE AND UNFORESEEN SEQUEL HAS EMERGED FROM THE STORIES OF GERMAN JEW-BAITING.

The whole of Israel throughout the world is uniting to declare an economic and financial war on Germany.

Hitherto the cry has gone up: "Germany is persecuting the Jews." If the present plans are carried out, the Hitlerite cry will be: "The Jews are persecuting Germany."

All Israel is rising in wrath against the Nazi onslaught on the Jews. Adolf Hitler, swept into power by an appeal to elemental patriotism, is making history of a kind he least expected. Thinking to unite only the German nation to race consciousness, he has roused the whole Jewish people to a national renaissance.

The appearance of the Swastika symbol of a new Germany has called forth the Lion of Judah, the old battle symbol of Jewish defiance.

Fourteen million Jews, dispersed throughout the world, have banded together as one man to declare war on the German persecutors of their co-religionists. Sectional differences and antagonisms have been submerged in one common aim—to stand by the 600,000 Jews of Germany who are terrorised by Hitlerite anti-Semitism and to compel Fascist Germany to end its campaign of violence and suppression directed against its Jewish minority.

Plans For Action Maturing In Europe And America

World Jewry has made up its mind not to rest quiescent in face of this revival of medieval Jew-baiting.

Germany may be called on to pay a heavy price for Hitler's antagonism to the Jews. She is faced with an international boycott in commerce, finance, and industry.

The Jewish merchant prince is leaving his counting-house, the banker his board-room, the shopkeeper his store, and the pedlar his humble barrow, to join together in what has become a holy war to combat the Hitlerite enemies of the Jew.

Plans for concerted Jewish action are being matured in Europe and America to strike back in reprisal at Hitlerite Germany.

In London, New York, Paris, and Warsaw Jewish merchants are uniting for a commercial crusade.

Resolutions are being taken throughout the Jewish business

PAGE TWO, COLUMN ONE

Late News

HITLER CABINET MINISTER ARRESTED LAST NIGHT

By D. SEFTON DELMER, "Daily Express" Correspondent.

BERLIN, Thursday, March 23.

I AM able to reveal to-night that Dr. Gerecke, Minister of Public Works in the Hitler Cabinet and Commissary for the Combating of Unemployment, has to-night been arrested by special order of Captain Goering, the Prussian Minister of the Interior.

"This will show the world," said Captain Goering to me to-night, "that I am not afraid to arrest even a Minister of Adolf Hitler's own Government when I believe that he is guilty of a crime against the German nation."

Captain Goering himself informed me that Dr. Gerecke will be accused of having converted to his own use 400,000 marks (£20,000 at par) of the funds entrusted to him when he was chairman of President von Hindenburg's election committee, and not less than 1,200,000 marks (£60,000 at par) in his capacity as treasurer of the German Land League.

General von Schleicher and retained when Hitler became Chancellor.

He is the last of Schleicher's men to be discarded from the Government.

The arrest must be looked at in conjunction with the detention near the German frontier at Cologne last night of Colonel von Bredow, the man appointed by Schleicher to succeed him as political chief of the War Office.

The Reichstag makes Hitler dictator.—See Page Thirteen.

SUTCLIFFE AND PAYNTER OUT FOR "DUCKS."

CHRISTCHURCH, (N.Z.), Friday, March 24. There was a thrilling start to the first Test between England and New Zealand here to-day. Sutcliffe and Paynter opened the innings, but within a few minutes were both out for "ducks"—Sutcliffe caught by James and Paynter bowled by Smith.—Reuter.

Late Scores: Stop Press.

Canon Shot At Prayer

SISTER FINDS HIM KNEELING AT HIS BEDSIDE

"Daily Express" Correspondent. BRISTOL, Thursday.

CANON ERNEST FREDERICK SMITH, an honorary canon of Gloucester Cathedral, was found shot dead kneeling in an attitude of prayer by his bedside at his rectory of Yate to-day.

His sister, Miss Ethel Smith, went to his room at 8 a.m. after a maid had been unable to get a reply to her knocks.

She found that he had been shot in the head. On the bed was a revolver containing one empty cartridge case.

BREAKING THE NEWS

Doctor and police were summoned, and while they were making their investigations the headmaster of the village school, Mr. E. Brown, called the children together and broke the news to them. "Always try to remember the rector's cheery smile and kindly word, and what good friends we all were," he said.

Choir practice in the church to-night was cancelled, as well as an organ recital which, it was expected, would have cleared off the remainder of the debt outstanding for rehangings of the ancient bells, an object which had been near to the rector's heart.

The Queen Who Lost Her Throne

ANGELA JOYCE tells on Page Thirteen of her three years' struggle to resume normal life after a year's adulation in the United States as "Miss England."

THE SOVIET AMBASSADOR ENTERTAINS

AN ALL-RED TALKIE FOR ALL-WHITE DIPLOMATS

MISSING GUESTS

"Daily Express" Special Representative.

THE Soviet Ambassador and Mme. Maysky gave a reception last night in the Russian Embassy at Harrington House, Kensington Palace-gardens.

Many of the diplomatic representatives of foreign Powers, together with many of London's professional intelligentsia, were present. It was understood, however, that some of the official representatives of Great Britain who had received invitations did not attend.

ADEQUATE REASONS

The reasons which led them to deny themselves a delightful evening were doubtless adequate and as impossible to overcome as those which recently prevented the Soviet Ambassador from going to the Foreign Office at the request of the British Government to explain the imprisonment of British subjects in Moscow.

A long stream of motor-cars and taxicabs bore witness to the general popularity of the Ambassador and to the guests' appreciation of the entertainment that was in store for them.

Receptions given by Soviet representatives as a rule strike the observer as armed truces, because the very essence of a Communist State is as hostile as can be imagined to the social and economic organisation of a capitalist State.

MENTAL STIMULANT

Last night proved an interesting exception. The refreshments, which included the choicest wines and foods, excelled anything that diplomatic London could produce for the entertainment of its guests. They were supplemented by mental stimulation in the shape of a Russian talking film, "The Counter-Plan."

Thus the usual truce disappeared, and the guests were frankly invited to admire the purposes of a State which means, if it means anything at all, the eventual destruction of the civilisation under which they live.

"The Counter-Plan" depicts the enthusiasm of a factory of Russian workers who are not satisfied merely to turn out the official requirements but who, inspired with a flaming devotion to the sacred cause of Communism, produce a great deal in excess of them.

GUESTS THRILLED

It may have been only coincidence that the main thread of the film was the danger of "sabotage" in the Soviet factories.

Briefly, they produce in the most praiseworthy fashion a counter-plan which is even superior to that conceived by their leaders.

The showing of this film, which variously thrilled the guests, took up the best part of an hour and a half, and the merely physical refreshments were, if not more in demand, none the less appreciated after it concluded.

ACTRESS KILLS HERSELF IN FIANCE'S PRESENCE

PARIS, Thursday, March 23. Mlle. Paulette Duvernet, a beautiful young French actress, after accusing her fiancé, a Paris theatre director of having ceased to love her, shot herself fatally.—B.U.P.

Mr. Churchill's Withering Attack On Premier

Officer Describes The Girl

DAYS OF LOVE IN BERLIN

"Daily Express" Special Representative.

SUMMER days and nights of love in Berlin through a fortnight of hectic pleasure; and then, when the holiday was over, stolen, hurried meetings in Holland.

One party to this romance, a pretty German girl of wealth, to whom money apparently meant nothing—the other, an officer of the British Army, who was content to allow the girl to pay him for his company and favours.

"MONEY" "A PRESENT"

That, in brief, was the story which Lieutenant Norman Baillie-Stewart, of the Seaforth Highlanders, told in defence before the court-martial which is trying him on charges of attempting to betray his country to a foreign Power for payment.

Instead of the money being paid over for revealing military secrets—as the prosecution alleged—Lieutenant Baillie-Stewart says it was given him as a present from a woman. That was the main line of his defence.

"I know," declared Mr. Norman Parkes, his counsel, in his first address to the court for the defence, "and Lieutenant Baillie-Stewart knows, that his conduct was highly creditable, but is his story a less likely one than the one the prosecution asks you to accept?"

CAFE MEETING

For the first time we learned how Lieutenant Baillie-Stewart met Marie Louise, the German girl who was claimed to have handed over money in English banknotes for happiness given her by this young British officer.

He was sitting in a Berlin café when a German—the man Otto Waldemar Obst—entered into conversation and said he would introduce him to somebody interesting who would entertain him while he was in the German capital. So, said the officer, there followed the introduction to Marie Louise.

We learned something more of Marie Louise when Lieutenant Baillie-Stewart was under cross-examination by Major Shapcott for the prosecution.

She was about twenty-two; height, 5ft. 6 inches; fair, with blue eyes and a good figure.

TOGETHER FOR DAYS

"I noticed her figure," said Lieutenant Baillie-Stewart. But, although they were together for days, going to night clubs, dance halls, restaurants, and swimming and canoeing in each other's company, he never found out her real name or antecedents, or even where she lived.

"I saw no reason why I should look a gift horse in the mouth, as it were," said Lieutenant Baillie-Stewart.

"Were you in love with her?" asked Major Shapcott at one stage. "Not particularly, no," replied the accused.

Strenuously Lieutenant Baillie-Stewart denied that he had ever imparted any military information to Marie Louise. "I should never discuss military matters with a girl," he declared.

A full report of yesterday's dramatic hearing appears on Pages Three and Fourteen.

NO TANGANYIKA SURRENDER

"The Government have never contemplated any surrender of the mandate," said Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister, Colonial Secretary, replying in the House of Commons yesterday to a request by Colonel Wedgwood for an assurance that no "further" consideration should be given to the question of surrendering the British mandate over Tanganyika, in view of the harmful effect on trade in Tanganyika owing to uncertainty regarding the future status.

'BROUGHT US NEARER TO WAR'

FOUR YEARS' WORK WITHOUT ANY SUCCESS

OUR DON QUIXOTE

By Our Parliamentary Representative

THE House of Commons, which has grown mealy-mouthed since the crisis of eighteen months ago, was shocked into reality last night by one of the most withering personal attacks of recent years.

The attack came from Churchill. It fell like a thunderbolt on Ramsay MacDonald.

GRAVE CHARGE

Amid the ridicule and contempt which Mr. Churchill obviously enjoyed heaping on the Prime Minister there was a charge of the utmost gravity. The charge was that the Prime Minister's conduct of foreign affairs has brought Great Britain nearer to war.

"The Prime Minister's interventions in foreign affairs," said Mr. Churchill, "have been remarkably unsuccessful. His repeated excursions have not yet led to any solid, good result. Where anything has been achieved it has nearly always been at British expense and to British disadvantage."

Mr. Churchill, standing just a few yards from Mr. MacDonald,

PAGE ELEVEN, COL. THREE Broadcasting Programmes

Mrs. George Lansbury Dead

A boy-and-girl romance which began at fifteen, ended last night with the death of Mrs. George Lansbury, wife of the Parliamentary Leader of the Socialist Party. Their fifty-three years of happy married life began in the deepest poverty and endured through a disappointing emigration to Australia. The dramatic story of this perfect domestic partnership is told on Page Thirteen.

STOP PRESS Telephone: Central 8000

ENGLAND v. N.Z.: FIRST TEST.

ENGLAND: 84 FOR 3 (LUNCH). Sutcliffe c James b B. Reynolds b Smith 4; Hamer out 38; Wyatt run out 20; not out 31; extras 5.—Re

You can easily wreck your car this way or you can just neglect the LUBRICATION ...

Neglected lubrication is just as sure a method, but less spectacular

Lubrication means much more than just filling up the oil sump. There are many points on your car that need careful attention—your car manufacturer tells you that.

Of course, it would take you hours and hours to do the job properly. That is why we've introduced Castrol Lubrequisite Service. Briefly, stations in your district have been equipped with labour-saving devices to do the job completely, quickly and well, using only genuine Castrol Lubricants. Ask us for the addresses.

LOOK FOR THIS SIGN

ASK FOR DETAILS

SCIENTIFIC LUBRICATION WHILE YOU WAIT

C.C. WAKEFIELD & CO LTD. HEAPSIDE LONDON EC2